MySocLab® and MySearchLab®

MySocLab and MySearchLab are online homework, tutorial, and assessment programs that truly engage students in learning. They help students better prepare for class, quizzes, and exams—resulting in better performance in the course—and provide educators a dynamic set of tools for gauging individual and class performance. And, they come from Pearson, your partner in providing the best digital learning experiences.

To learn more, visit www.mysoclab.com or www.mysearchlab.com.

Give your students choices

Pearson titles are available in a variety of formats—digital and print—so students can access them however they like. Tell your students to check for their title on their favorite digital provider: CourseSmart, Amazon, MySocLab, and more. Other options for students include a printed text with a Pearson MyLab product, a three-hole-punched, loose-leaf version—or even your own custom-built course material.

Contact your Pearson representative for more information.
